About Intrax

Intrax Cultural Exchange is a leader in work-based cultural exchange programs throughout the world. We connect the most qualified candidates with internationally minded businesses and organizations in need of smart, hard-working students.

Each year, Intrax places over 20,000 international candidates with host companies. Over the last 25 years, Intrax has matched over 300,000 candidates, from over 80 countries, with seasonal jobs, internships and career training programs.

Why Host an American Intern

Intrax Intern Abroad matches companies around the world with qualified American university students who are eager to gain international work experience. By hosting our students your company will not only benefit by adding intelligent, qualified personnel, your workforce will gain valuable insights into American culture.

While Intrax handles all the initial screening to qualify candidates, your company maintains full control over the selection process. In addition, Intrax will facilitate all accommodation, in-country support and travel requirements for our students. We make it simple for your company to host qualified American interns.

We currently offer two types of internship programs to our participants, long term and short term summer programs. Please explore the details of our programs below.
